The Humane Society For Greater Nashua is a 501(c)(3) private, nonprofit corporation supported by tax-deductible donations, fundraising endeavors, bequeaths, grants and foundation requests, community-wide support and in-kind gifts. They receive no city, state or federal grants, no United Way funds and no funding from National Animal Welfare organizations. They are dedicated to the creation and maintenance of a responsible and humane two- and four-footed community. They provide for and protect abandoned, abused, neglected and unwanted animals and promote animal welfare through programs and services that mutually benefit animals and people. The Amherst Town Band is pleased to perform this concert to benefit this organization.

Thank you!

Thank you to Stan St. Onge for technical assistance. Thank you to Bruce Wasson and the SHS custodial staff. Thank you to all of the Board members for their volunteer service to maintain the organization of the band.
